

Lee, Nancy & Zachary

This is Us! We are Nancy, Lee, and Zachary from New York. We are thrilled at the hope of growing our family through adoption once again. We know this may be a difficult time for you, and hope to do our best by showing you who we truly are. The pictures in our adoption profile will help you see a small part of our lives, but hopefully you will feel the love we all have for each other. We have so much to give and share and can't wait to do so. Thank you for taking the time to learn about us!

About us

Celebrating Zachary's First Birthday

We met in on Match.com in January 2007. We exchanged emails for a week before deciding to speak, and shortly into our first conversation, we decided to meet. We have been together ever since, moving quickly through life side by side. We were married in July 2009 and bought a home in June 2010, but then in 2015, life got even better when we were lucky enough to be chosen to be parents to our son, Zachary. Life has shown us such joy since then; being parents has given us a whole new level of happiness. We have witnessed a new type of selfless love and dedication in each other and have grown more in love because of it. We love our family and can't wait to grow it even more.

About Lee

"Lee is an all-around great guy with a good heart . He is my husband, but also my best friend, and I adore being around him! He is hardworking and extremely intelligent and succeeds in all he does.

Lee is an amazing father to Zachary and is happiest when he is around him. From the minute he walks in the door it is play time, and laughs, giggles, and screams fill the house, and his unconditional love is truly breathtaking to witness. His world revolves around his family and he does everything in his power to provide for us. I can't wait to see Lee become a father again and watch his love for his family grow even more!" —by Nancy

About Nancy

Morning routines with Nancy's kindergarten classroom

"Nancy has a heart of gold and an infectious smile, and is always there when you need her most. She is sincere and warm, and has a great sense of humor. I fell in love with Nancy when she told me she is a 5th grade teacher and how much she enjoys working with her students. Nancy puts 100% of her efforts into whatever she does; her job, her home, her marriage, and now, her son. Nancy cherishes our little boy and her goal is to make him smile, keep him warm, and make sure he is learning something new all the time. Nancy is the best person I know and has so much love to share, so much to teach, and so much to give." —by Lee

About Zachary

Zachary is a sweet little boy with his bright blue eyes and big smile he shares with the world. He is about to turn two and beginning to talk and sometimes has funny comments to questions we ask him. He is curious and learns something new every day. Zachary loves to be outside, and plays in the yard for hours. He loves the pool, and is fearless and daring, and likes to try new things. Before bedtime, Zachary sits with Mommy and Daddy, who read stories with him before he kisses and hugs them goodnight. Zachary will make an excellent big brother!

our Home & Neighborhood

Our home is our little corner of the world, it's comfortable, lived-in and nothing formal. We live in every room of the house and nothing is off limits for playtime. We have decorated for comfort and there is always a blanket around to cozy up with and watch a movie. In the backyard, we created our own little park complete with pool, swing-set and many toys. Many days, you will find Zachary and Frankie running around playing. We're lucky enough to have enough space for everything we need, Barbecue included. We live just east of New York City, it's a neighborhood with old-world values. There are many children on our block and young families continue to move in. We have great schools and great restaurants! We chose Long Island for the location. We have New York City and all of its culture and diversity an hour in one direction and Long Island beaches and farms an hour in the other direction.

our Family & Friends

One of the first things that we found in common with each other is that we both come from smaller extremely close, loving families. We both have parents who have been together all their lives and have shown us the meaning of everlasting love. Combined we also have 3 siblings that enhance our lives every day. That being said we have also each developed a great circle of lifelong friends whom have become our family. We each value that we have the same friends from childhood and have become Uncle Lee and Aunt Nancy to all of their children and Zachary has gained many aunts and uncles. We have a great support system around us and they can't wait to watch our family grow.

We love taking vacations with our families and friends, spending the weekends at each other's homes and building memories together that will last a lifetime.

Thank You

We are truly humbled that you might be considering us in your decision. We have so much love to give and can't wait to share it! We are good people with huge hearts and we look forward to bringing another child into our world. Thank you for taking the time to learn about our lives, it means the world to us!

START each day with - a grateful HEART -
All our love
